Voorbis and His Vindication. Ex-Commissioner John R. Voorhis ha

Ex-Commissioner John R. Voorhis has been ready to vindicate himself from the charges made by Capt. Creeden and Leader Reppenhagen ever since their testimony was given, and although Mr. Goff did not have time to examine him last week he intimated that he would give him a chance to tell his story before the Committee finally adjourned.

Vindications, however, have not been popular since the unfortunate experience of Street-Cleaning Commissioner Andrews, following that of Civil Justice George F. Roesch, afforded an illustration of the fate which might await those who are too anxious to contradict the testimony of the Committee's witnesses.

Capt. Schmittberger, though still unable to leave his house, was reported to be greatly improved this morning. In the statement which he made last night in reply to the charges of Emma Charles, that he extorted from her every cent she made while she was running the "House of Ali Nations," he says he was not in command of the precinct at the time mentioned. As soon as he did take charge, he says he immediately closed up the place she was then running, the house known as the "Recherche," thereby Incurring the ill-will of a high police official, who was interested in protecting the place.

Many Applicants for Goff's Place. Many Applicants for Goff's Place.

Although Mr. Goff has not made any definite statement of his plans for the future, it is generally understood that he will retire as counsel for the Committee at the close of the present week. Who will be his successor is yet a mystery, One of the members of the Committee has stated that there have been more than one hundred applicants for the place, but no selection has yet been made, and will not be until after the first of the year.

Mr. Johnson's Rat Story Unheeded -Register Levy Scored.

The Board of Estimate and Apportion ment resumed its work on the city bud-get for 1895 to-day, and Mayor-elect Strong was again present as a spectator Board of Education was the first department taken up, and an appropri-ation of $4,962, 421.14 was allowed. This is over $28,000 more than last year, the $4,634,134.27. The biggest increase was in the item for the salaries of teachers, which was raised from about $225,000, the total for 1856 being $3.461.251.

For lectures, $31,500 was allowed, which is $14,500 more than for 1894. For corporate schools, such as those of the children's Ald Society, $137,000 were allowed, an increase of sohe $12,000.

For supplies the sum of $200,000 was allowed, as against $180,000 for 1894. The Board of the Committee on Supplies, made an tearnest plea for that amount.

The Mayor observed that J. Augustus Johnson, President of the Council of Good Government Clubs, was present, and very uneasy, and called on him for any suggestions. Mr. Johnson assured the Mayor that it was not the Board of the Mayor that it was not the Board of the Mayor that it was not the Board of the Mayor which it increase.

The Mayor wished to know something about Mr. Johnson's credentials, as a representative of the people, and said:

The lieve you are the kentleman who said that the children had to content with the rats for possession of some of the Schools. The Mayor thought the Commissioner is better authority than Mr. Riis, and he disputed Mr. Johnson's rat story, and no further increase was allowed.

The Register's office was also to have been taken un to-day, but no one appeared to represent that office. The meeting rested until a messenger had been sent over to the Hall of Records, and finally Chief Cierk Hanley turned up with the explanation that Register Levy was indisposed and had not come downtown to-day, not thinking it necessary. Mayor Gilroy said, with fine Irony;

Well, it is very necessary. Register Vell, it is very necessary, register Levy has been making a number of re-movals lately, doubtless in the interest of reform, and we might find it desira-ble to increase his appropriation. Certain newspapers announced the execution thirty-six Armenians at Erzeroum. This to-

of thirty-six Armenians at Erseroum. This in-formation is not correct, the facts being as fol-lows: Out of forty-six Armenians under arrest at Erseroum thirty-six were liberated, five were condemned to death and the remaining five to ten years of hard labor. Seven others were also con-demned to death, but they are in flight. The condemned men were convicted of murder and assault, but the last legal formalities concerning these sentences have not yet been fulfilled.

resident Lewis Does Not See How More Pay Can Be Given.

President Daniel F. Lewis, of the Brocklyn City Railroad, said this morning that he did not think the Company would be able to increase the wages of employees after Jan. 1. Last Saturday, he said, a Committee waited on him and presented a petition for an increase of twenty-five cents a day for conductors and men working in the Electrical Department.

Mr Lewis will confer with his section superintendents, and see if anything can be done for the men. The entire subject, he declared, would be carefully considered.
